40 AHĀDĪTH OUTLINING VARIOUS VIRTUES OF THE MASĀJID, THEIR OCCUPANCY, AND THEIR ETIQUETTE.

INTRODUCTION

All praise is due to Allah تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالَى and continuous Salutations on our Master Nabi Muhammad صَلَّ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالَ الْهِ وَسَلَّمَ .

Before you is a Kitaab containing forty Mubaarak Ahaadith of Nabi regarding the virtues of performing salaah in the Masjid and other aspects pertaining to the Masjid taken from the kitaaab,

"40 AḤĀDĪTH OUTLINING VARIOUS VIRTUES OF THE MASĀJID, THEIR OCCUPANCY, AND THEIR ETIQUETTE"

Prepared by Moulana Abdullah Bin Abdul-Samad Patel of England. May Allah تَبَارُكُوتَعَالَ grant Moulana the best of both worlds for his sterling effort and responding to the need of the time.

The need was felt that these Mubarak Ahadith and explanations be shared on WhatsApp to increase accessibility and benefit. This need was taken on by our colleague and class mate, Qari Shabbeer Desai of Umzinto. He commenced the first Hadith. However, due to Qari Sahib's busy schedule it was then handed over to us. We have merely copied the Mubarak Ahadith with the explanations from the original PDF and have made slight adjustments to the language to suit South African communities. There are a few explanations that were left out for certain reasons.

We make Dua that Allah تَبَالِكُوتَعَالَ accept this effort and reward all those who assisted in preparing and propagating it.

Allah بَارَكَوَتَعَالَ make it a means of benefit for the entire Ummah till the day of Qiyamah and grant us all Allah's بَارَكَوَتَعَالَ perpetual pleasure. Ameen

Sayyidunā Abū Hurayrah رَضَوَالِيَكُ عَنْهُ that he said, صَا لَيْلَةُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَىٰٓ اللهِ وَسِلَة

"The most beloved of places to Allah تَبَارَكَوَتَعَالَ are the Masājid, and the most detested of places to Allah تَبَارُكُوَتَعَالَ are the markets."

[Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim; Ibn Ḥibbān]

EXPLANATION

The Masājid are the most beloved of places to Allah بَبَارِكَ وَتَعَالَى, because He is remembered abundantly in them, whilst the marketplaces are generally places where we become forgetful and negligent of Allah بَبَارِكَ وَتَعَالَى Naturally, if the Masjid is the most beloved place in the eyes of Allah بَبَارِكَ وَتَعَالَى the people who frequent the Masjid are also the most beloved in His eyes.

Sayyidunā Abū Hurayrah صَآلَتُهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَىٰٓ آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ reports from Nabī صَآلَتُهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَىٰٓ آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ that he said,

"There are seven whom Allah تَبَالِكَوْتَعَالَ will shade in His Shade on the Day when there is no shade except His Shade:

1. A just ruler.

- 2. A youth who grew up in the worship of Allah تَبَارُكَوَ وَتَعَالَىٰ.
 - 3. A man whose heart is attached to the Masājid.
- 4. Two men who love each other for Allah's تَبَارُكَوَتَعَالَىٰ sake, they meet for that and part upon that.
- 5. A man who is called by a woman of beauty and position (to engage in Haraam)but he says: 'I fear Allah تَبَارُكُوَتُعَالَىٰ.
- 6.A man who gives charity and hides it, such that his left hand does not know what his right hand gives in charity.

7.A man who remembers Allāh تَبَارُكَوَتَعَالَى in private and his eyes shed tears." [Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī; Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim – Agreed Upon]

{3}

Sayyidunā Abū Hurayrah رَضَحُالِيَّهُ عَنْهُ reports from Nabī صَلَّالِلَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَىٰٓ اللهِ وَسَلَّمَ that he said,

"The angels pray for the one who sits in his place of ṣalāh as long as he does not break his wuḍū, by saying, O' Allāh, forgive him, O' Allāh, have mercy on him."

[Bukhari and Muslim]

EXPLANATION

How blessed is the person who sits in the Masjid in the company of the angels! Though he may not be engaged in duʻā or remembrance, the angels pray on his behalf, and what can be said of the prayers of the perfect creation of Allāh (The Angels) whose sole purpose is to obey and worship Him! Surely, we have hope, that any duʻā they make on our behalf is accepted.

Sayyidunā Abū'l-Dardā' صَا َلِسَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالِيَالِهِ وَسَلَّمَ reports from Rasūl-Allāh صَا َلِسَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالِيَالِهِ وَسَلَّمَ that he said,

"The Masjid is the house of every pious person, and Allāh تَبَالِكَوَتَعَالَى has granted comfort and mercy for whom the Masjid is his house, and that they will easily cross the bridge to the pleasure of Allāh, to Paradise."

[Ḥilyat al-Awliyā; Tabarānī; Musnad Al-Bazzār]

EXPLANATION

The word 'bayt' (house) is used deliberately because a person spends majority of his time at home. It is as if the ḥadīth refers to those people who make the Masjid their home by spending a large portion of their time therein. For such a person, Allāh تَبَارُكُوتَعَالَ promises to grant them comfort and mercy, both in this world and the hereafter, and will enable them to cross the bridge to the pleasure of Allāh بَبَارُكُوتَعَالَ in Jannah, Inshā-Allāh. What an honour!

This hadīth indicates, like many others, that those who are attached to the Masjid, are those who are more Allāh-conscious, because remaining in the Masjid helps a person avoid sins especially as the person is in the company of the angels and other pious like-minded individuals.

Sayyidunā Abū Hurayrah رَضَحُالِيَّكُ عَنْهُ reports from Nabī صَا ٓ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَا ٓ اللَّهِ عَالَى اللَّهِ وَسَالَمَ that he said,

"Those who assemble in a house among the houses of Allah تَبَالِكُوَتَعَالَ (Masaajid) to recite the book of Allah بَالِكُوتَعَالَ and to learn and teach it, tranquility descends upon them, mercy enshrouds them, the angels surround them and Allah بَالِكُوتَعَالَ mentions them in the presence of those near him."

(Sahih Muslim)

EXPLANATION

This Hadīth clearly indicates that the Masjid's purpose is not solely for congregational ṣalāh, but also for other individual and collective acts of worship. 'Sakīnah' refers to a special contentment, peace and tranquillity which is Allāh-given, and cannot be achieved by anything of this dunya.

Sayyidunā Abū Hurayrah وَضَوَّالِتَهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ وَمَعَلَى الْهِ وَرَسَلَّمَ reports from Nabī صَرَّالِتَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى اللهِ عَلَيْهِ وَمِعَلَى الْهِ وَرَسَلَّمَ that he said,

"No Muslim attends the Masjid regularly for ṣalāh and remembrance (of Allāh الْبَاكِوَتَعَالَى), except that Allāh بَبَاكِوَتَعَالَى expresses joy, just like the family of an absent person express joy when the one who is absent returns to them."

[Musnad Aḥmad; Sunan Ibn Mājah]

EXPLANATION

Every time a person attends the Masjid, Allāh ﴿ treats him with love and attention. He is like the one who after being absent, finally returns home. Imagine the joy and anticipation with which his family await him, the hospitality they have in store, the embrace they have been waiting to give him! All these emotions are intense, but still limited due to our human restrictions. The love, attention, joy and anticipation shown by Allāh تَبَارِكُوَتَعَالَى is unfathomable and His hospitality for His slaves is unimaginable.

Sayyidunā Salmān al-Fārsī رَضَالِيَّهُ عَنَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَىٰ آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ reports from Nabī صَلَّ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَىٰ آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ that he said,

"No Muslim performs wudū and does so properly, except that he is Allāh's visitor, and it is a duty upon every host to honour their visitors."

[Tabarānī - Sahīh]

EXPLANATION

This hadīth teaches us that when a person performs wudū from home, he is honoured by becoming a visitor of The Almighty Allah تَبَارُكُ وَتَعَالَى .

This hadīth helps us understand that the Masājid belong only to Allāh بَالكُوتَعَالَ, and we are simply His deputies on this earth. Hence, we must take care of the Masājid and fulfil its rights; for the host invites only those guests who respect and honour his home.

said, صَيَّالِتُهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَىٰآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ reports that Rasūl-Allāh صَيَّالِتُهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَىٰآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ said,

"If you see a man committed to the Masjid, bear witness to his Imaan. Verily, Allāh عَالِكَوَتَعَالَ says in the Quraan Majeed, 'The Masājid are only occupied by those who have Imaan in Allāh and the Last Day, establish ṣalāh and give charity'." [Jāmiʿ al-Tirmidhī; Musnad Aḥmad]

EXPLANATION

Being committed to the Masjid means to attend it frequently, to remain attached to it and to serve the Masjid by cleaning it, etc as is suggested in a narration collected by Imām Tirmidhī Such a person is surely a believer, for the hypocrite can pretend for a short while, but cannot remain committed to this state of pretension. It is the consistency and sincerity which distinguishes the believer from the hypocrite.

VIRTUES OF THE DIVINELY SANCTIFIED MASAJID

Sayyidunā Abū Dharr مُنْوَلِّسُهُ says, "I asked,

EXPLANATION

The Ummah is indebted to the Sahaaba وَصَالِتُكُ who asked Rasūl-Allāh وَصَالِبُهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَالِ إِلَهُ وَسَالًا who asked Rasūl-Allāh sterling questions and which he would respond to with answers that provide us clarity in our Deen. The first Masjid for salāh was built in Makkah. Forty years later, in Jerusalem, the Masjid al-Aqṣā was built. This Masjid is named Aqsā due to its distance from Makkah.

The entire earth being a place of salāh is a blessing specific for this Ummah, ensuring that lack of a built Masjid is no longer an excuse for missing salāh.

said, صَالَّ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالِ ٱلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ reports that Nabī صَالًّ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالِ ٱلْهِ وَسَلَّمَ reports that Nabī صَالًا اللهِ وَعَالِ اللهِ وَسَلَّمَ said,

"Salāh in this Masjid of mine (Masjid al-Nabawī) is better than a thousand salāh in any other Masjid, except the Masjid al-Harām (of Makkah)." (Bukhari and Muslim)

EXPLANATION

The increased reward of Salāh is of the great virtues which Allāh أَمَالِكُوْتَعَالَ has blessed the sacred Masājid with. Each of the three sacred Masājid has its own manifold rewards, distinguishing them from the common Masjid. Salāh in the Masjid al-Harām of Makkah is 100,000 times more rewarding than salāh in any Masjid other than the divinely sanctified ones.

A believer should try his utmost to gain this immense reward throughout his life by visiting the holy cities and spending maximum time in the confines of the Masājid. Evil deeds committed in these Masajid are worse than in other places just as good deeds offered within them secure an increased reward. The same applies to blessed times stipulated by Allāh

Sayyidunā Abū Hurayrah وَخَوَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالَى الِّهِ وَسَلَّمَ reports that Nabī صَلَّالِلَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالَى الَّهِ وَسَلَّمَ reports that Nabī said, صَالَّاللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالِمَ الْهِ وَسَلَّمَ reports that Nabī صَالًّا للَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالِمَ الْهِ وَسَلَّمَ reports that Nabī صَالًا للهُ وَعَالِمَ الْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said,

"Do not undertake a journey to visit any Masjid except three: Masjid Al-Haram, this Masjid of mine and Masjid Al-Aqsa".

(Bukhari and Muslim)

EXPLANATION

Contrary to the opinion of a small minority, this hadīth is not a prohibition from travelling to any place besides these three. This hadīth actually refers to travelling to any other Masjid with the hope of a greater reward, which is reserved to only these three and Masjid Qubā. The inclusion of Masjid Qubā is understood from a narration which has been reported by Imām Ibn Mājah, in which Nabī مَا اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَا اللهِ وَسَالًا said,

"He who makes wuzu at his home, comes to Masjid Qubā and offers two rakats therein, will receive the reward of an Umrah."

HELPING TO BUILD A MASJID

sayyidunā Anas مَنَوْنَكُنَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلِيَّالِهِ وَسَلَّمَ reports from Nabī صَرَّالِتَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلِيَّالِهِ وَسَلَّمَ that he said,

"Whoever builds a Masjid seeking the pleasure of Allāh, be it small or big, Allāh builds a house for him in paradise."

[Jāmi^c al-Tirmidhī]

EXPLANATION

Allāh بَالِكُوتَعَالَ rewards the sincerity of good actions, not just the apparent magnitude of them. The great benefit of this is that those who have been given less of the dunya do not feel left out due to their lack of resources. Allāh بَالِكُوتَعَالَ loves every sincere effort made for His Dīn, be it big or small.

The reward mentioned in this hadīth is not only for those who build an entire Masjid, but also for those who contribute towards building a Masjid. In this world, we are restricted by the resources and materials available to us. However, in the Aakhirah, there are no restrictions in Allāh's تَالِكُوۡتَعَالَى treasures. The house He builds for us will be beyond our imagination, greater than anything this lowly world has to offer.

Sayyidunā ʿAbd-Allāh Ibn Abbas مُنَوَّعَلِيَّالِهِ وَسَالَّمَ reports from Nabī صَلَّالِلَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَىٰآلِهِ وَسَالَّمَ that he said,

"Whoever builds a Masjid for Allāh – though it be the size of the ground nest of a sandgrouse bird – Allāh will build for him a house in Paradise."

[Musnad Ahmad]

EXPLANATION

Sandgrouse birds are common in the Arabian Peninsula. Unlike other birds, they build their nests resembling small hills on the ground. Under the nests they hide their eggs. These egg-nests are no larger than a few inches in diameter. Again, this hadīth indicates that whatever the size of a sincere deed, Allāh will accept it, as he promises in Sūrah al-Zilzāl,

"And whoever performs an atom's weight of good, will see it".

sayyidunā Anas صَا لِتَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالِ آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ reports from Nabī صَا لِللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالِ آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ that he said,

"After the believer dies and whilst he is in his grave, the reward for seven types of good actions continue flowing for him:

- 1. Knowledge that he taught and spread.
 - 2. A river he caused to flow.
 - 3. A water-well he dug.
 - 4. A tree he planted.
 - 5. A Masjid he built.
 - 6. A Qur'ān he bequeathed.
- 7. A pious child who will seek forgiveness for him after his death." [Musnad Bazzār Sahīh]

EXPLANATION

There are multiple ahādīth of this essence in the hadīth kitaabs which indicate that a person is continuously rewarded for his good deeds after his death although he no longer has the capacity to carry them out. This is undoubtedly a great favour of Allāh تَاكُوتَعَالَ .

Of these actions is building a Masjid. The person will receive the reward for every good that takes place within the Masjid, be it those who perform salaah, those who recite the Qur'ān, those who make the zikr of Allah بَيَارِكُوتَعَالَ, and those who remember Him in any other way. Though the deceased sleeps in his grave, his rewards continue to accrue and will benefit him when he needs it the most in the hereafter.

THE VIRTUES OF ATTENDING THE MASJID DESPITE DIFFICULTIES

sayyidunā Buraydah صَا لِتَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالِ الْهِ وَسَلَّمَ reports from Nabī صَا لِللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالِ الْهِ وَسَلَّمَ that he said,

"Give glad tidings of perfect light on the Day of Resurrection to those who walk to the Masjid in darkness."

[Abū Dāwūd; Jāmi al-Tirmidhī]

EXPLANATION

People living in countries which do not benefit from artificial light will understand the hardship of travelling to Fajr and 'Ishā when the darkness of the night envelopes the atmosphere, creating a world of dangerous unknowns, be it the attack of harmful animals or humans. The darkness is a time to rest which makes the journey all the more difficult. Allāh's بَالَاوَتَا وَاللَّهُ promise to grant them perfect light in the hereafter is an example of 'al-jaza' min jins al-'amal', the principle that the reward is from the same genre as the deed. The day of judgement will also be a place of darkness, except for those whom Allāh بَالاَوْتَالُ favours by granting them divine light with which they will be able to see.

said, صَلَّالِلَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَى اللِّهِ وَسَلَّمَ reports that Nabī وَخَوَالِيَّهُ عَنْهُ said,

"Whoever attends the Masjid in the morning or in the evening, Allāh prepares for him in Jannah a hospitality every time he attends in the morning or in the evening."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

EXPLANATION

The 'Ulamā write that Rasūl صَالَةُ عَالَيْهُ وَعَالَ أَلْهُ وَمَالَمُ is most likely referring to the Fajr and 'Asr salāh. This is due to the difficulty in attending both. During the latter portion of the night, the negligent servants of Allāh بَارَكُ وَتَعَالَى sleep in their beds, so those who make the sacrifice to visit the Masjid are the blessed ones who are promised divine hospitality in Jannah. The hadīth of Bukhārī describes this hospitality as:

"Which no eye has witnessed, nor an ear has heard of, nor even the thought of it has crossed the heart of a human."

The same reward remains for visiting the Masjid in the evening at the time of 'Asr. This is because it is usually a time of slumber after a hard day's work, when people prefer to relax and rest.

Sayyidunā Abū Razīn مِوَوَالِلَهُ reports from Sayyidunā ʿAbd-Allāh Ibn Umm Maktūm مِوَالَلُهُ عَنْهُ who said,

"I came to Rasūl-Allāh ﴿ اللّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَالْهِ وَسَلَّمُ and asked him, "O' Rasūl-Allāh ﴿ اللّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَالْهِ وَسَلَّمُ and asked him, "O' Rasūl-Allāh ﴿ اللّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَالْهِ وَسَلَّمُ اللّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَالْهِ وَسَلَّمُ اللّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَالْهِ وَسَلَّمُ اللّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَالُهُ وَسَلَّمُ اللّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَالُهُ وَعَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلْمُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلِيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلِيْهُ وَعَلِيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلِيْهُ وَعَلِيْهُ وَعَلِيْهُ وَعَلِيْهُ وَعَلِيْهُ وَعَلِيْهُ وَعَلِيْهُ وَعَلِيْهُ وَعَلِيْهُ وَعِلَيْهُ وَعِلَاهُ وَعَلِيْهُ وَعِلَاهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلِي وَعَلِي وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعِلَمُ وَعِلَمُ وَعَلِي وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَ

[Ahmad; Abū Dāwūd; Ibn Mājah]

EXPLANATION

Understand the importance of performance of ṣalāh in the Masjid to our Nabī مَا اللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَالِهُ وَسَلَمْ that he did not permit a blind companion to abandon salāh therein. What can be said of our condition? We seek every little excuse to discard salāh in the Masjid, though we can hear the adhan in our homes. A narration, either from Sayyiduna 'Alī مَعَالِينَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَالِهُ وَسَلَمٌ or Nabī مَا اللهُ وَسَلَمٌ directly mentions,

"There is no salāh for the neighbour of the Masjid except in the Masjid" [Al-Istidhkār, Ibn Hibbān in al-Majrūhīn]

This Hadith informs us of the extreme importance of attending the Masjid for salāh.

Sayyidunā Ubayy Ibn Ka^tb وَخَوَالِتُهُ عَنْهُ says:

"There was a man, and I do not know of any other man, whose house was further than his from the Masjid and he never missed the ṣalāh (in congregation). It was said to him or I said to him: "If you were to buy a donkey you could ride upon it in the dark nights and in the burning sand." He said, "I do not like my house to be situated by the side of the Masjid, for I (eagerly) desire that my steps towards the Masjid and back from it, should be recorded when I return to my family." Upon this, Rasūl-Allāh مَا اَلَّهُ عَالِمُوسَالُونَ said: "Allāh has gathered all of that (rewards) for you!"

[Sahīh Muslim]

EXPLANATION

Look at the eagerness this companion shows for reward. He does not use his distance from the Masjid as an excuse to miss congregational salāh. Rather, he uses it as a motivation to attend, citing the great reward in store. This attitude is referred to in the Ahādīth as 'ihtisab' (hoping for reward), as we have been advised to do when performing good deeds. Such zeal for performing good deeds prompted Nabī صَالَةُ عَالَيْهِ وَعَالِهِ وَسَالًةٌ مُنْ 's response,

"Allāh has gathered all of that (rewards) for you", i.e. for your attitude, for your punctuality with the congregational salāh, for walking to the Masjid, etc.

Sayyidunā Jābir Ibn 'Abd-Allāh هُنَوْمُسُلُونِي reported:

There were some plots vacant around the Masjid. The Banū Salima tribe decided to relocate (to this land) and come near the Masjid. This (news) reached Rasūl-Allāh مَا اللّهُ مَا يُعِدُونَا اللّهِ وَسَالَمُ , so he addressed them saying,

"I have received' (information) that you intend to relocate near the Masjid."

They said, "Yes, O' Rasūl-Allāh صَلَّالِلَهُ مَايَدِهُ وَعَالَ الْهِ وَسَلَّم , we have intended this."

Upon this, He (Nabī صَلَّ اللَّهُ مَا يُدُوعُ اللَّهِ وَسَلَّم said,

"O' Banū Salima, remain in your abodes, for your steps (to the Masjid) are recorded; remain in your abodes, for your steps are recorded."

(Sahih Muslim)

EXPLANATION

This hadith shows the passion Sahaba بَحَوَالِكُهُ had for the Masjid, that they were intent on moving their entire dwellings. This may be reasonable or expected of a single person, but the entire tribe's desire to move demonstrates their united passion for the Masjid. This was also the habit of our concerned elders who made the Masjid the central focal point of their lives and their communities. It was due to Nabī 's مَا اللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَالِ الْهِ وَسَالَةُ permitted them to their attachment to the Masjid that He مَا اللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَالِ الْهِ وَسَالَةُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَالِ الْهِ وَسَالَةُ وَعَالِ الْهِ وَسَالَةُ وَعَالِ الْهِ وَسَالًا لا اللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَالِ اللهُ وَسَالًا لا اللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَالَ الْهُ وَسَالًا لا اللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَالَ الْهُ وَسَالًا لا اللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَالَ اللهُ وَسَالًا لا اللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَالَ اللهُ وَسَالًا لا اللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَالَ اللهُ وَسَالًا اللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَالَ اللهُ وَاللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَالَ اللهُ وَاللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْ اللهُ وَاللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَ

For those with weaker īmān it is certainly advisable to live closer to the Masjid, so we have fewer obstacles in attending the Masjid for congregational salāh.

THE VIRTUES OF CONGREGATIONAL SALAH IN THE MASJID

Sayyidunā Abū Hurayrah رَضَوَالِينَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَى الِهِ وَسَلَمَ asked his companions,

"Shall I not inform you of those (deeds) through which Allāh erases sins and by which he raises ranks? Performing ablution (wudū') thoroughly in difficult conditions, (taking) many steps towards the masājid, and waiting for (the next) salāh after (having performed) salāh, for verily, that is ribāt, that is ribāt, that is ribāt!"

[Musnad Ahmad, Sahīh Muslim]

EXPLANATION

A person is rewarded for wudū, for it is the key to multiple acts of worship. The deeds that are most handsomely rewarded are the obligatory deeds. Since salāh is obligatory and praying it in the masjid is the most complete performance of salāh, the wudū required to perform it will also be obligatory and highly rewarding.

Patience, resilience and steadfastness draw Allāh's divine assistance, for they are the key to servitude and worship.

A person cannot be an ardent worshipper without exercising patience and showing resilience. As mentioned in other ahādīth, taking steps to the Masjid causes sins to be erased and ranks to be elevated. The reason for this great reward is the steadfastness it requires, to attend consistently despite the obvious difficulties.

The well-known meaning of ribāt is to take part in the defence of the Islamic frontiers. This is undoubtedly a noble action.

In this hadīth, Rasūl-Allāh صَالَّ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُ وَعَالَ اللِهِ وَسَالَةً has referred to these actions as ribāt because just as soldiers guard the frontiers, so also by his actions, a man guards himself against the onslaught of the Shaytān and his base Nafs (inner self). [Mirqāt al-Mafātīh] said, صَالَّاللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ narrates that Rasūl-Allāh صَالَّاللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ said,

"He who leaves his house in the condition of wudu towards the obligatory salāh (in the masjid), his reward is like the reward of a pilgrim (Haji) in the state of ihrām. And he who sets out to pray the forenoon salāh, nothing spurring him on except this, then his reward is like that of a person performing the 'Umrah, and one salāh followed by another without any deviation in between is written in the 'illiyyīn (the register of those who will be given the highest stages of Jannah)."

[Abū Dāwūd]

EXPLANATION

As with other ahādīth, it is clear that the spiritual journey of a worshipper attending the Masjid starts at home. Hence, there is continuous encouragement to perform the wudū at home. Once the spiritual journey begins, the reward also begins to flow for this person, as this simile describes. The one who intends the obligatory salāh is rewarded like a Hāji who has donned the ihram, intending to perform the rituals of the obligatory pilgrimage. A person who wishes to perform nafl (optional salāh) in the Masjid is also given a remarkable reward, like the one intending Umrah, (the optional pilgrimage). The distinction is made because a person performing obligatory deeds earns the greatest rewards. The rewards of the optional deeds are comparatively less.

The simile may also be used to give us a baseline from which we can understand how great this person's reward will be. Generally, we do not visualize the reward of a person praying salāh, but we understand the magnitude of the reward for a person going for Hajj. Even if a person's reward will not be exactly like the one going for Hajj, it will be comparable, so understand the magnitude of the deed you have been ordered to perform.

said, صَالَّاتِلَةُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَا آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ Abū Hurayrah رَضَالِتُهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَا آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ said,

"Whoever performs wuḍū and does it properly, then leaves intending salāh, it is as if he is in salāh as long as his intention is for salāh. And for every step he takes, a good deed will be written, and for every other, a sin is wiped off. Then, when one of you hears the iqāmah, then do not run, because the greatest reward is reserved for those living furthest away." They said, "Why, O' Abū Hurayrah?" He replied, "Due to the increased footsteps."

[Muwattā]

EXPLANATION

This hadīth again displays the grace and favour of Allāh أَالكُوتَعَالَ on this Ummah. Although we may not be engaged in salāh, we are rewarded simply for waiting for salāh. Every step is rewarded, not only to raise our ranks, but also to forgive the numerous minor sins we commit daily.

The command to avoid running is so that the person remains dignified when approaching the Masjid. Also to avoid any risk of injury, which could potentially deprive him from the blessings of the Masjid.

The greatest reward is reserved for those furthest away because their sacrifice is the greatest in accordance to the principle, "The reward is dependent on the effort."

Some 'Ulamā have also mentioned that this promise of greater reward is also applicable to those who use cars to attend the Masjid. However, by consensus, it is more rewarding if a person walks to the Masjid due to the explicit wording of the hadīth.

Sayyidunā ʿAbd-Allāh Ibn Masʿud مُؤَلِّسُهُ has said,

"Whoever would like to meet Allāh tomorrow (i.e. on the Day of Judgement) as a Muslim, let him preserve these (five daily) salāh where the call for them is given (the Masājid), for Allāh has prescribed the sunan al-hudā (ways of guidance) to your Nabī مَا اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ وَ

[Sahih Muslim]

EXPLANATION

This narration from Sayyidunā ʿAbd-Allāh Ibn Masʿud عَنَوْسَانِهُ is self-explanatory. It is a common principle amongst the scholars of hadīth that if a companion mentions virtues of actions, they must have heard it from Nabī مَا اللهُ وَعَالَالهِ وَسَالَةُ وَعَالَالهِ وَسَالَةُ , for they are not in a position to mention divine virtues without instruction. Of the commands given to the final Ummah in the Qurʾān is to follow the path of the Ambiya عَلَيْهِ وَالسَّلَامُ , as mentioned in Sūrah al-Anʿām,

"These are they whom Allāh guided, therefore follow their guidance...." [6:90]

Similar to what is mentioned in this narration.

This narration also shows the zeal of the companions and the best generations after them to attend the congregational salāh in the Masjid, even if they were so unwell or injured that they would need to be supported by two men. This has also been recorded regarding our Nabī صَا اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالَ اللهِ وَسَلَّمَ himself, a few days prior to His صَا اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالَ اللهِ وَسَلَّمَ demise [Bukhārī].

ANGELS OF THE MASAJID

Sayyidunā Abū Hurayrah رَضَىٰ narrates from Nabī صَا َلِلَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَا } narrates from Nabī صَا َلِلَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَا الْهِ وَسَالَمَ that he said,

"Indeed, the Masājid have pegs (those who spend considerable time within); the angels are their companions, if they are absent, the angels search for them; if they are sick, the angels visit them, and if they are in need, the angels assist them"

[Musnad Ahmad; Al-Targhīb wa'l-Tarhīb - sahīh]

EXPLANATION

This hadīth introduces a unique dimension to the way we understand the Masājid. The Masjid has been likened to a tent which is held in place by its pegs. There may be huge sheets of fabric covering the tent and beautifying it but the pegs are the essential pieces which keep it established and firmly anchored to the ground. People generally look at the walls and the foundation as those components which contribute most significantly to the establishment of the Masjid. However, one should understand that the most important aspect of the Masjid is not the walls, but the people who remain attached to it and frequent it regularly. They are its pegs and its foundation.

How fortunate are these individuals whose companions are the pure angels, who care for them, assist them and look out for them.

This special friendship is because the angels also reside in the Masjid and create bonds with those who spend significant time within them too. If a person has some need, he often has to deal with it using his own talents and strengths. But when a person remains attached to the Masājid, the angels assist him in his works. From this it becomes apparent that the one frequenting the masjid and visiting it regularly, derives a benefit for his Aakirah, as well as a special perk in this worldly life.

Sayyidunā Abū Humayd رَضَوَالِيَّكُ عَنْهُ report from Rasūl-Allāh صَا اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالِلَهُ عَنْهُ that he said,

"When one of you enters the Masjid, he should recite,

'Allāh-umma'ftah lī abwāba rahmatik'

'O' Allāh, open for me the doors of your mercy', and when he leaves, he should recite,

'Allāh-umma innī as'aluka min fadlik'

'O' Allāh, I ask you from your favour." [Sahīh Muslim; Abū Dāwūd; Nasā'ī]

NOTE

The term 'Masjid' mentioned in Ahādīth refers to the four walls of the area that Salaah takes place within not the entire building (the area where Sunnah Mu'takifeen have to be within i.e excludes the Sehan, Wuzu Khana etc). Hence, these supplications are to be made when entering and exiting the actual Salaah area, not upon entering and exiting the main doors of the building.

EXPLANATION

This hadīth informs us of the sunnah supplications when entering and leaving the Masjid. We ask Allāh ﴿ for His mercy when entering the Masjid because therein resides His special mercy and His angels who make Dua for the Musallees. It would be a great shame if we entered His house yet left deprived of His mercy.

Upon leaving the Masjid, we ask Allāh تَبَارِكَوَتَعَالَ for His favour because we are leaving a sanctuary of mercy and goodness to the vice-filled world. We will fall into it, were it not for Allāh's تَبَارُكُوَتَعَالَى favours upon us. We ask Allāh تَبَارُكُوَتَعَالَى for goodness both within the walls of the Masjid and outside the Masjid.

THE ETTIQUETTE OF THE MASJID

Sayyidunā Abū Zubayr رَضَاٰلِتَهُ عَنْهُ narrates, I asked Sayyidunā Jābir رَضَاٰلِتَهُ عَنْهُ Have you really heard Nabī of Allāh صَالَّالَتُهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالَ الِهِ وَسَالَّمَ saying,

"A person is in salāh so long as he is waiting for the salāh"? He replied, "One night, we waited for Nabī of Allāh مَا اللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللهُ وَاللّهُ وَلّهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللّه

EXPLANATION

Sayyidunā Abū Sa^rīd مُنْفَعْنَهُ reports,

"A black woman who used to sweep the Masjid of Nabī مَا اللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللهُ passed away in the night. When Nabī مَا اللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللهُ عَلَيْهُ مَا اللهُ مَا اللهُ مَا إِلَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللهُ وَاللهُ وَاللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللّهُ

[Sunan Ibn Mājah]

EXPLANATION

Look at the honour afforded to the sweeper of the Masjid by Rasūl-Allāh مَا اللهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَالَالِهِ وَسَالَمُ himself! Though the companions thought they were allowing him to rest, he reprimanded them, and insisted on visiting her grave to repeat the salāh over her. This hadīth also teaches us multiple lessons like the swiftness of the initial salāh al-janāzah, the love of the companions for Nabī مَا اللهُ عَالِيهُ وَعَالًا لِهُ وَسَالًمُ and his love for those who served the Masjid.

Sayyidunā Haywah Ibn Shuraih رَحْمَهُ اللَّهُ reported,

"I met Sayyidunā 'Uqbah Ibn Muslim عَنَالِيَهُ and said to him: It has been reported to me that you narrate from Sayyidunā 'Abd-Allāh Ibn 'Amr وَحَالِيَهُ from Nabī , that when he would enter the Masjid, He would say:

'A'udhu bi'llahi'l-Azīm wa bi-wajhi-hi'l-karīm wa sultanihi'l-qadīm min al-Shayṭān al-rajīm'

'I take refuge in Allāh, The Magnificent, and in His Noble Countenance, and in His Eternal Domain, from the rejected devil'.

He ('Uqbah) asked, "Is it only that much?"

I (Haywah) said, "Yes."

He ('Uqbah) said, "When anyone says so, the devil says, 'He is protected from me all day long."

[Abū Dāwūd; Al-Tarqhīb wa'l-Tarhīb]

EXPLANATION

This supplication is often neglected despite its authenticity and powerful meaning. We take refuge in Allāh ﴿ from Shayṭān's plotting and scheming whilst in the Masjid so we can remain protected from his evil, and benefit from the pure environment therein. How unfortunate is the person who attends the gatherings of the angels yet insists on bringing Shayṭān inside with him.

Sayyidatunā Ā^cisha مُنْوَشِّلُ reported,

"Nabī مَرَا اللَّهُ عَالِيَهُ ordered us to build Masājid in every area (neighbourhood), and that it should be cleaned and perfumed".

[Jāmi^c al-Tirmidhī; Sunan Ibn Mājah; Abū Dāwūd]

EXPLANATION

It is of vital importance to build Masājid in every locality so that the residents of that particular area are able to carry out their acts of worship inside the Masājid with ease, thereby keeping the Masājid occupied, without the difficulty of going to Masājid that may be far from their homes.

Another bonus for building Masājid in every locality is that it will unite the Muslims of that particular area and increase their mutual love as they will see each other five times a day.

As the Masājid are the houses of Allāh بَالكُوتَعَالَ, it is imperative that we keep the Masjid as well as its surrounding areas clean and perfumed. There are many virtues for assisting in the cleaning of the Masjid. If we have the right intention (in cleaning the Masājid to please the angels and our Muslim brothers who frequent them), the reward will be multiplied.

Sayyidunā Abū Dharr مَنَوْنَكُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَى ٓ reported from Nabī صَلَّالِيُّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى ٓ إِلَهُ وَسَلَّمَ who said,

"The deeds of my nation were presented to me, The good deeds as well as the bad deeds. I found from amongst the good deeds, removing an obstacle from the path (road). I found from amongst the bad deeds, mucus which was not buried in the Masjid."

[Sahīh Muslim; Musnad Ahmad]

EXPLANATION

It is the right of the Masjid and the Musallis that we refrain from disrespect and causing distress. As most Masājid are carpeted nowadays, we should ensure that we blow our nose or spit inside a tissue or handkerchief. If anything happens to fall on the carpet, we should clean it immediately.

said, صَا ٓ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَا ٓ اللَّهِ وَسَالَّمُ areports that Rasūl-Allāh رَضَّ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَا ٓ اللهِ وَسَالَّمُ said,

"The rewards of my ummah were placed before me, even for removing a speck of dust from the masjid, and the sins of my ummah were presented to me, I did not see a sin greater than a sūrah or āyah of the Qur'ān which a person memorised, then forgot."

[Abū Dāwūd; Jāmi^c al-Tirmidhī; Ibn Khuzaima]

EXPLANATION

Memorising the Qur'ān is a highly rewarding act of piety, such that a narration mentions that a person's ranks in Jannah is determined by the Qur'ān they memorise and recite. 'Forgetting it' means to forget how to read it looking inside a mushaf. This can only happen due to constant negligence of Allāh's تَارِكُوْتَعَالَى Divine Word.

said, صَا ٓ ٱللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَا ٱلِهِ وَسَالَّم reported: Nabī صَا ٓ ٱللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَا ٱلِهِ وَسَالَّم said,

"If anyone hears someone make an announcement of a lost item inside the Masjid, he should say," May Allāh not return it to you". This is because the Masājid have not been built for this purpose.

[Abū Dāwūd; Sahīh Muslim]

EXPLANATION

The sole purpose of building a Masjid is for the remembrance and worship of Allāh ﴿

Recitation of the Qur'ān, disseminating discourses and other acts which serve a Deeni purpose. Hence, making an announcement of a lost item inside the Masjid is against the etiquette and sanctity of the Masjid. The above could be said as a warning to the person so that he takes heed and is more careful next time in making such announcements inside the Masjid.

said, صَلَّالَتُهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَىٰ آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ reported, Nabī وَضَالِّلُهُ عَنْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَىٰ آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ reported, Nabī صَلَّالُلَهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَىٰ آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ

"Whosoever eats (raw) onions, garlic and leek, should not come close to our Masājid.

This is because the angels are repulsed by those things that are repulsive to the son of Ādam."

[Bukhari and Muslim]

EXPLANATION

Garlic and onions cause a foul smell in the mouth. Therefore, if one has consumed food with garlic or onions, he must ensure to gargle and wash his mouth properly, preferably by using miswāk or toothpaste before coming inside the Masjid. This way he will not cause any inconvenience to those people in the congregation who will be standing in close proximity to him. Under this ḥadīth, the 'Ulamā do not restrict the makrūh ruling solely to garlic or onions but to anything which leaves a foul smell in the mouth or on clothes. These should be avoided before attending the Masjid. In this ḥadīth, Nabī مَا عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلِيْهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهُ وَعَلِيهُ وَعَلِي

OTHER USES OF THE MASJID

Sayyidunā Abū Saʻid Al-Khudrī وَخَوَالِتُهُ عَنْهُ reported that Sayyidunā Muʻawiya وَخَوَاللَّهُ عَنْهُ passed by a circle of people in the Masjid and said,

"What has caused you to sit here?" They said, "We are sitting here in order to remember Allāh المنافقة "He said, "By Allāh المنافقة are you really only sitting here for this purpose?!" They said, "By Allāh, we are sitting here for this purpose!" Thereupon, he said, "I have not asked you to take an oath, because of any allegation against you, and none that shared proximity with Allāh's Rasūl منافقة المنافقة المنافقة (walked by a circle of his Companions and asked, "What has caused you to sit here?" They said: "We are sitting here to remember Allāh and to praise Him for He guided us to the path of Islām and He conferred favours upon us.' Thereupon he asked them in Allāh's المنافقة المنافقة ألم المنافقة المنافقة المنافقة (was the purpose of their sitting there. They said: 'By Allāh المنافقة المنافقة المنافقة المنافقة (المنافقة المنافقة عنافقة) said: "I am not asking you to take an oath because of any allegation against you, but for the fact that Jibrīl came to me and he informed me that Allāh, The Exalted and Glorious, was talking to the angels about your excellence."

EXPLANATION

This Hadīth teaches us of the humility of the companions despite their leadership positions and their passion for teaching the masses about the Aḥādīth of Nabī عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَيْهِ وَمِنَالَّهُ وَمَالِهُ وَمِنَالَّهُ وَمِنَالُهُ وَمِنْ اللّهُ وَمِنْالُهُ وَمِنْالْهُ وَمِنْالُهُ وَمِنْالْهُ وَمِنْالُهُ وَمِنْ إِنْ وَمِنْالُهُ وَمِنْ اللّهُ وَمِنْالُهُ وَمِنْ اللّهُ وَمِنْالُهُ وَمِنْ اللّهُ وَمِنْالُهُ وَمِنْ اللّهُ وَمِنْالُهُ وَمِنْالُهُ وَمِنْالُهُ وَمِنْالُهُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالُهُ وَمِنْاللّهُ وَمِنْالُهُ وَمِنْالُهُ وَمِنْاللّهُ وَمِنْاللّهُ وَمِنْاللّهُ وَمِنْ إِنْ مُنْالُونُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالِهُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالِهُ وَمِنْالِمُ لِمُنْالِمُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالِمُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْاللّهُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالِمُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالِمُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالِمُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالِمُ وَمِنْالُونُ وَمِنْالِهُ وَمِنْالِهُ وَمِنْالِهُ وَمِنْالِهُ وَمِنْالِهُ وَمِنْالِهُ وَمِنْالِهُ وَمِنْالِمُ وَالِمُنْالِمُ وَمِنْالِهُ وَمِنْالِهُ وَمِنْالِهُ وَمِنْالِهُ وَمِنْالِهُ وَمِنْالِمُ وَالْمُعُلِمُ وَمِنْالِمُونُ وَالْمُعُلِمُ وَل

Sayyidunā ʿAbd-Allāh Ibn Amr Ibn al-ʿAs مُؤَلِّلُهُ reports:

Rasūl-Allāh عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّا اللَّهُ اللَّا اللَّهُ اللَّا اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ ا

EXPLANATION

This hadīth shows very clearly that the Masjid was not just used for congregational salāh, but also for other acts of worship, both individual and congregational, be it recitation of the Qur'ān, making du'ā, teaching and learning and other acts. From other authentic narrations, it is clear that Nabī would also host guests in the Masjid and at times, it was even used to house prisoners.

Although Nabī صَالَاتُهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَالَالِهِ وَسَالَةُ praised both groups of people for their devoted worship. However, he preferred to sit with those engaged in teaching and learning, because this was one of the primary objectives of his prophethood. Reciting the Qur'ān and supplicating to Allāh تَبَارُكُ وَتَعَالَى is not possible without knowledge, making knowledge one of the roots of worship, hence it's high regard in the eyes of Nabī صَالَاتُهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالَالِهِ وَسَالَةً sayyidunā Abū Umāmah صَلَّالِلَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى ٓ reports from Nabī صَلَّالِلَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى ٓ الْهِ وَسَلَّمَ that he said,

"Whoever goes to the Masjid, intending only to learn or teach goodness, receives the reward of a pilgrim whose Ḥajj is perfect."

[Tabrānī]

EXPLANATION

If a person has the right intention when going to the Masjid his intention is to listen to a discourse or Khutbah of the Imām so that he may learn something new, or an Imām or teacher proceeds to the Masjid with the sole intention of teaching and benefiting the congregation, he will get the reward of a pilgrim whose Hajj is perfect.

{38}

Sayyidunā Abū Umāmah رَخِوَالِيَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ reports from Nabī صَلَّى آلِهُ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ that he said,

Sayyidunā Anas وَرَالِيَهُ الْهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَالَ الْهِ وَسَالَمُ reported that Nabī حَالِيَهُ عَلَيْهُ said, "The last hour will not come until people compete with each other in the (building) of Masājid."

[Musnad Aḥmad; Abū Dāwūd]

EXPLANATION

One of the signs of the coming of the day of judgement is that people will compete with one another in building grand Masājid. They will incur great expenditure in decorating them, making them lavish, with the sole purpose of show, wasting excessive amounts of personal and worse, public funds, in pursuit of this pompous show. They will then use this exorbitant unnecessary expenditure to claim religious leadership and social excellence. There will be no sincerity in their intention, and there will be no reward for their endeavours. Rather, their actions will only draw the Final Day closer. Their concern will not be the welfare of the community nor the service provided by the Masājid. Their service for the Masjid will be restricted to bricks and mortar which will testify against them in the hereafter.

"When one of you enters the Masjid, he should perform two rak ats before sitting." [Bukhari and Muslim]

EXPLANATION

It is a highly recommended sunnah to perform two rak'āts nafl salāh upon entering the Masjid before sitting down. This has become an abandoned sunnah that needs to be revived. Hafiz ibn 'Abd al-Barr highlights the unanimous position of the scholars regarding the desirability of performing the two rak'āts so long as it is not a time wherein nafl salāh is prohibited. He also mentions that according to the literalists this ṣalāh is obligatory. Although some literalists prefer the view that it is wājib (obligatory), according to the majority of scholars, it is an important emphasised Sunnah not Wajib. These 2 rak'ats are offered as a sign of respect, reverence and greeting to the masjid.

"Three individuals have a guarantee from Allāh; If they live, they will be provided sustenance and will have their needs fulfilled, and if they die, Allah will grant them entry into Paradise:

- 1. One who enters his home and says 'salām' (al-Salāmu'alaykum) has a guarantee from Allāh.
 - 2. One who leaves for the Masjid has a guarantee from Allāh.
 - 3. One who comes out in the path of Allāh has a guarantee from Allāh." [Ibn Hibbān]

EXPLANATION

Allāh بَالِكُوتَعَالَ promises to look after these people in both the dunya and the hereafter, fulfilling any needs they may have. Especially in the hereafter, when we will be desperately searching for divine mercy. This promise is simply for coming to the Masjid, without mentioning which action they perform. Such is the favour of Allāh بَالِكُوتَعَالَ.
